Nature is God. By doing good deeds, life becomes so joyful. Bad things happen to bad creatures, but God does not give them immediate death. He gives them a chance to improve, to do good deeds. Because only good deeds can wash away bad deeds. If you become a good creature, you will realize how joyful life is. God does not bless you by fasting and praying in temples, mosques, churches, etc., God blesses you by the good deeds you do. One may belong to any religion or caste, but he is a human being.

Because of the dowry system, every year so many girls are killed before they are born. If trees and plants are completely wiped out from the world, then one day the earth will also take the form of Venus. If a girl gets married at the age of less than 21 years, the child to be born is at risk. There are no ghosts, spirits, past lives and zombies in this world. The existence of all these is just a human imagination. By not consuming meat and eggs, you are saved from many types of diseases. Doing good leads to good and doing bad leads to bad, it depends on you what you want. Watching pornographic videos and pictures is effective in reducing your intellectual capacity, working capacity, ability to concentrate, physical weakness, hindrance in success and making you mentally ill. Knowledge cannot be snatched away, knowledge can be acquired. Luck can be improved by doing good deeds. Rinsing after eating removes the food particles stuck in your teeth and your teeth remain clean and healthy. Consuming garlic and medicine together can cause a reaction on the body. By consuming celery, all the small worms present in your stomach come out through stool. Food items that are the main sources of protein are gram dal, roti moong, soybean etc. Taking 8-9 hours of sleep every day keeps the mind and body healthy. 8-9 hours of sleep can be called complete sleep. There is no benefit in worrying or being stressed. Looking at nature makes your mind happy. Covering food items and water vessels properly prevents your water and food from getting contaminated. Wounds or injuries in open air heal and heal quickly. Mustard oil can heal torn parts of the skin. In case of keratolysis, applying mustard oil on that part can cure it. If you are stressed or worried about something, writing it down on a piece of paper can lighten your mind.

Helping everyone in good works, saving someone's life, doing good works, sharing knowledge, etc. are Dharma.
Having some goal in life makes life fun. Doing your work with complete honesty makes you feel good. The one who can solve any problem without fighting is intelligent.
One should love only that person who is capable of getting married. Business runs on good and durable goods. What we see with our eyes can sometimes be a misunderstanding. People will remember you because of your good deeds. Keep working hard and trying until you succeed. By immersing the body in the soil, the possibility of increasing air pollution is reduced. By believing in non-violence, many types of crises can be avoided. By turning off the burning bulb at night or by sleeping by covering your eyes with a cloth, the eyes and brain can be saved from being affected by the bright light of the bulb. By growing trees and plants, the mind remains calm, happy and fresh. By not consuming food containing more salt or sugar, many types of diseases can be avoided. To solve the problem of water, more and more trees and plants should be grown and more and more ponds, dams, ponds, wells and dams should be constructed. Because trees and plants bring rain towards them. There is no soul in the world, soul is just a human imagination. Storage of the brain is infinite. Choose the subject which you like and which you like to study, you can be successful. There is a possibility of the battery of the mobile getting damaged and bursting if you use it while charging it. It will be a mistake to consider the opponent side weak in the game. Supporting good deeds is good for you. By not rearing non-vegetarian or poisonous animals, you can avoid terrible consequences. Bhagwan, God, Allah, Ishwar have different names, but God is one. Sins are not washed away by bathing in the Ganga, sins are washed away by doing good deeds. Killing or sacrificing any living creature brings unrest, sadness, sorrow and trouble in your life. Teasing any living creature can prove to be dangerous. Money earned from good deeds will bring you happiness, peace and benefits. Dishonesty, theft, violence, lies and greed can put a person in many kinds of troubles. Excessive greed can put a person in many kinds of troubles. If you believe that you can succeed, then you can succeed. Hurting yourself or ending your life on your own is a sin. There is no benefit in regretting after making a mistake. One should learn from that mistake and avoid making the same mistake again. The main reason for climate change is the decreasing population of trees and plants. Humans get knowledge by:- seeing, hearing, reading By saying and writing. We should enjoy the life that God has given us. It is easy to say that a difficult task is possible, but difficult to do, but not impossible. Lies will trap you, truth will save you from getting trapped. The result of good work is good. Every plant and tree is auspicious, it depends on you what you consider it to be. There are no ghosts in the world, ghosts are just a human imagination. By focusing on good things and not focusing on bad things, you can live a good life. No possible task is impossible. The best diet for living beings is fruits, vegetables and seeds and the food items made from them. By telling or sharing your sorrows and worries with someone, your mind becomes light and it is also possible that you get a solution to your problem. Every day is auspicious, it depends on you what you consider that day to be. Violence and anger lead man towards troubles. By making firecrackers electronically, air pollution can be reduced to a great extent. By making vehicles that run on batteries, air pollution can be reduced to a great extent. Instead of memorizing a speech, it is better to make it yourself, this way you will not have the problem of forgetting it. Many trees can be more than 1000 years old. Sometimes one has to walk alone to achieve success.

Parents want the best for their children. People look more beautiful when they smile than with makeup. Helping in good works makes you feel good and good things happen to you. A writer should create such literature that gives correct information to people. There is no magic in this world, magic is just a human imagination. Future is made by reading and writing and future is also made by playing and jumping. Agriculture and business are open to everyone. Reading literature is necessary to create literature. Many times good wishes are answered. It is better to read or write it down than memorizing it. It will not be difficult for you and you will gain knowledge and information. What has happened cannot be changed. When a person praises another person in front of him, that person's courage increases and he feels good. Your art can also make your future. Watching pornographic videos will lead you to humiliation. Your hard work and effort in good works will lead you to success. The secret of success of great people, scientists, mathematicians, artists is that they kept working hard and trying until they became successful. We should take only as much loan as we can repay. Discrimination on the basis of high and low distances you from other people. Foreign trade connects one country with another country and good relations are formed. Luck remains with those who work hard, try and do good work. Saving or helping the life of any living creature brings happiness, peace, joy and prosperity in your life. Helping in good work, saving life, making people laugh, sharing happiness, sharing knowledge, growing trees and plants etc. can be called good works. If you have to lose to save life, then you can lose.

Sacrificing or killing animals is committing a sin. Whatever things you offer to the idols of people doing good deeds, mosques, churches, temples etc., if you give those things to the needy people or the poor instead of offering them, then God will be happy. Comparing yourself with someone else can make you sad. People can say anything to you, let them say, you keep doing your work, you will definitely succeed one day. By not taking dowry, suicide of lakhs of girls and female foeticide can be stopped. Man cannot become a Naag or Naagin, man becoming a Naag or Naagin is just a human imagination. Students are putting their own future in darkness by cheating in the examination. By not causing pain, suffering, pain to anyone, you can live a happy life. By lying, people get into trouble. We often dream about what we see, think, hear and read with our eyes. Possible tasks are possible and impossible tasks are impossible. We just consider possible tasks as impossible. A living being is born once, lives once and dies once. Some information for eye health while using a smartphone:- Sleep for about 8-9 hours daily. Always keep the dark theme on the smartphone. This can control the white light emitted from the smartphone. Which, due to being at a short distance, falls directly on the retina of the eyes. After six in the evening, reduce the display light on your smartphone completely and turn on Eye Care (Night Shield). (Note:- By watching a virtual reality device very close to the eyes daily, you can lose your eyesight.) It is good to read books and e-books.

Reading helps in getting good sleep. Thinking ability, understanding ability, intellectual ability and concentration ability increases. Knowledge increases. But it is good to read about seven pages of a book or e-book in 24 hours daily. This will not have any adverse effect on the health of your heart and brain. Some characteristics of a developed country:- Free education facility, free medical facility, free internet facility, free electricity facility, free telecommunication facility, free emergency facility, developed roads and routes, good law and order, developed forests, clean rivers-ponds-waterfalls, developed industrial system...etc. By getting your life insured, your family members will also be safe with you. They can become your enemy in the greed for money. Also, insurance companies keep taking your hard earned money by scaring and luring you. So choose your life and hard earned money, not insurance. Doing good deeds is religion. Because one of the main messages of religious texts like Quran, Bhagavad Gita, Bible etc. is to do good deeds. The synonym of good deeds can be called religion.

Religion = good deeds. Do not tell the dark truth or bad things about fake religion, politics, companies etc. by showing your identity. Otherwise, they will come after you. They will try to harm you. There are people who are so crazy in the name of fake religion that they can even kill and get killed. Tell them the truth or tell them about their bad deeds. But by hiding your identity. By watching pornographic videos, you can become mentally weak and sick. You can also get addicted to it. After which your thinking, understanding and intellectual capacity will be affected. After becoming mentally ill, your sexual life will also be affected. Your happiness will be lost. Anxiety and stress will take over.

Which will become an obstacle in fulfilling your desires. These pornographic videos are responsible for 70 percent of rapes in the world.

(Note: Masturbation or intercourse is not bad.

Watching pornographic videos is harmful for your health.)

Some good ways to avoid this heat - drink as much water as possible, wear light and white colored clothes, paint the outer layer of the house with white color. Because white color does not absorb light and does not convert light into heat. Consuming refined flour (maida), refined sugar, refined oil and food items made from it daily increases the chances of obesity, diabetes, brain stroke, heart attack, cancer, respiratory, skin related diseases. Because they contain many chemicals. (Artificial sweetener is more harmful than refined sugar.) Having sex with your own grandparents or your own parents or your own siblings or your own sister-in-law or brother-in-law or your own son or daughter can lead to tension, trouble and sadness in your and their life. There is also a possibility of fights and quarrels and life coming into danger. Chewing gum is a non-vegetarian product. Pig fat is used in the process of making chewing gum.

Consuming it increases the possibility of getting sick. Also, swallowing chewing gum in large quantities can lead to you being hospitalized. It can even lead to death if you do not get treatment. We should not say such things by showing our identity, which can harm us later. For example, speaking openly by showing your identity about a company doing bad work, government or fake religion, harmful product, etc. If you want to speak, then speak without hesitation, bring the truth in front of everyone. But by hiding your identity. Hindu, Muslim, Sikh, Christian...etc. all these are fake religions. Doing good deeds is the true religion. Recognize the true religion. In true religion your life will be better and good. Be it offline or online gambling (juha). If you get caught in its greed, then it will eat your hard earned money like termites. There are many people who are sanyasis, sadhus...etc. They will tell you that by bathing or eating cow dung or cow urine you will become more healthy or your skin will improve, then all this is a lie. They will not do this, but in the guise of blind devotion they will definitely make you suffer. Be careful. Consuming meat, eggs and things made from them increases the chances of heart attack and kidney failure. The numbers of heart attack and kidney failure are increasing in the world. By getting a tattoo on the skin of the body, the chances of skin disease on the skin increases. By using nail polish, the chances of your nails getting damaged quickly increases. Because they contain harmful chemicals. Also, using mehendi can harm the skin of your hands. Relationships can be ruined by beating.

Therefore, if he commits a mistake, explain it to him properly, not by beating him. If he doesn't understand even after explaining, then with the passage of time, someday he will understand. Save your children from superstitious people during Amavasya and Purnima. Because there are such superstitious people who are trying to sacrifice your child. Fantasy sports gaming platform is a game of betting. Whether you make a team and win or lose, it doesn't matter much to the company. They will keep earning profit just because you keep playing. So many people have been ruined because of these platforms. Stay away from these platforms and avoid earning money through short-cut methods. Before investing in mutual funds (stock market), do a thorough investigation of it. Don't fall into the trap of excessive greed. Don't trust fraudulent companies. Invest only in trustworthy companies. If you have more than enough money, then only invest in mutual funds (share market). By committing suicide, you will have unbearable pain. Your life will end. Your parents will cry. After some time your body will be buried in the soil. The joy that you would have got while living, you will not get that too. There is no rebirth and soul, that means complete end. By committing suicide, you are harming yourself, not others. If you do not have enough money to study tuition, do not worry. If you have faith, then you can pass the exam even without taking tuition. Because knowledge is required to pass the exam.

Penis Length The hair grows with age and there comes a time when it stops growing.

Medicines to increase its length are useless.

Masturbation is not bad, it gives physical pleasure. But daily masturbation can cause weakness, tiredness, stress, irritability and pressure on the private parts. Using lipstick can increase the chances of cancer in your lips. Chemical paste cannot make you fair, but it can increase the chances of dryness and cancer in your skin. Using chemical fragrances increases the chances of burning sensation in the eyes, redness of the eyes, asthma, difficulty in breathing...etc. Eating meat, eggs and things made from them increases the chances of stomach diseases, increased laziness, obesity, skin diseases, cancer, kidney failure, heart attack...etc. So think for yourself, long and healthy life or eating meat and eggs. Sins will not be washed away by doing Puja-Paath, fasting, wounding oneself etc. Sins will be washed away by doing good deeds. Suicides happen in the world, but some suicides are murders. Some police officers destroy the evidence found by taking money. The idols which you worship considering them to be God are actually the idols of people who have done good deeds. Ram Setu is a natural bridge which is made by nature. Today people in the world are so immersed in faith that some are worshipping the penis of Lord Shiva, while others are worshipping the vagina of Kamakhya Devi. If you want to bow down, you can bow down to the idol of Lord Shiva and the idol of Kamakhya Devi. In which their full body is present. Bowing down is a good thing, because they must have done good deeds. Soap and detergent powder damage the skin of our body and increase the chances of dryness, wrinkles and cancer in the skin.

Shampoos and pastes containing chemicals damage hair and help in hair loss and hairfall. Colgate damages teeth and gums. Soap, shampoo, detergent powder and foam of Colgate contaminate water and due to use of this contaminated water, humans and animals are getting sick. Bathe with water, wash hair with water, wash hands and face with water, wash clothes with water and save yourself and water from getting contaminated. By applying mustard oil on hair daily, the smell coming from hair can be removed. By playing gambling, you can get addicted to it. Your mind can be diverted from other works, which are your source of income. Gambling can also make someone drown in debt. There are billions of creatures on earth. All of them have their own different languages. God neither understands your dialects and languages nor your thoughts. He listens and he enjoys listening. Because the voices of many creatures are very sweet and melodious. But they see everything - what is happening on the earth, what is going on, what the creatures created by them are doing, what we are doing...etc. If a girl gets pregnant at the age of less than 21 years, it can have a bad effect on the health of the mother and the child. Do not use chemical paste, clean your teeth daily with a brush and rinse with clean water after eating. By doing this, your teeth and gums will remain clean and healthy for a long time. Drinking cold water from the refrigerator daily will increase the chances of getting cold and cough. By using air conditioner (AC) daily, the body can become weak in tolerating the temperature of the outside environment and the body may face difficulty in adapting to the outside environment. Mother's milk is the best for children. Human milk is good for her child. Cow milk is good for her child. Buffalo milk is good for her child. But if a human (organism) drinks the milk of another organism, then the possibility of getting many types of digestive, skin, heart related diseases increases.

Like- allergy, itching, gas problem, stomach ache, cold-cough, fever, obesity, weakening of immunity...etc.

(Note:- Today, various types of products are made from cow and buffalo milk. They are tortured and harassed every day. To produce more milk every day, they are given many types of medicines. Due to which many cows and buffaloes die within a few years.) There are many articles, ideas, knowledge and information available in the world. But it is not necessary that all are correct. Therefore, believe in it completely only after thinking, thinking and studying yourself. If you have got a good body from nature. If there is no pain and discomfort in the body, then that good body should not be tampered with. Otherwise it can have adverse effects. Like- plastic surgery, hormone replacement therapy...etc. (Note:- Surgery should be done by those who have problems or pain in the body or any other disease). Due to the farmers growing seeds, vegetables and fruits, the prices of food items are normal. Food items are increasing. The governments of the country should provide many facilities to the farmers. Along with this, they should also be given pension every month. Because if most of the farmers stop farming, the situation will become serious. For example, the prices of food items will increase a lot, the number of adulterations in food items will increase, fake food items will start being made in large quantities, demonstrations will start happening everywhere regarding the prices of food items, Food storage will gradually start to run out, violence will erupt over food, wildlife will start to be eaten on a large scale every day, industries and companies will come to a standstill, mortality and disease rates will increase, most humans will be engaged in growing food.

Millions of years ago, not all large organisms died just because of asteroids. When large organisms like dinosaurs lived on Earth, many asteroids hit the Earth's surface, the Earth's magnetic force protected the Earth from those asteroids to a great extent. But the small asteroids that had entered the Earth, due to the gravitational force, fell into the land and seas like fireballs at a high speed. Due to which forests caught fire. Forests were burning every year. Gradually the Earth's air became poisonous and polluted. Due to which large organisms could not survive. Many small terrestrial organisms and large aquatic organisms were able to survive. Gradually pollution decreased. After this incident, the oxygen level on Earth decreased. After which, there was a great difference in the size of the organisms. With the decay of plants and trees, it is decreasing further. (Note:- This incident is based on a possibility.) Difference between vegetarian life and non-vegetarian life: Vegetarian life- Long lifespan, reduced chances of getting complex and serious diseases, agile body, increased attention in work, good sleep...etc. Non-vegetarian life- Increased chances of getting complex and serious diseases, increased laziness, reduced attention in work, inability to control anger...etc. The largest number of species of organisms on earth live in the oceans. The land on earth is about 30 percent and water is about 70 percent. Due to the testing of nuclear bombs in the oceans, thousands of organisms living in the oceans die. (Note:- This is based on a possibility.) Due to minors and youth watching pornography videos for a long time, their mental state is changing.

Some are becoming mentally ill, some are going on the path of becoming transgenders and some are going on the path of becoming rapists. (Note:- This report is based on male and female genders.) Diwali festival:- It is a festival celebrated with the light of lamps, rangolis, decorations, sweets...etc. Every year, there are side effects of firecrackers such as:- air pollution, respiratory diseases, lung cancer, polluted air, irritation in the eyes, increase in heat, global warming...etc. (Note:- Every year, hundreds of people die due to air pollution). Holi festival:- It is a festival celebrated with colorful rangolis, decorations and delicious sweets. (Note:- Colors should not be applied on the body, because colors may be made of harmful chemicals). Such films, stories and books, which are promoting wrong information and superstition. This is having a negative impact on children, youth and the elderly. Their mental condition is getting weak. The ability to think and understand is being adversely affected. Like stories and films based on magical powers and ghosts etc. The life you have got is your first and last life. Enjoy this life because no living being gets a second birth and there is no such thing as a soul. Soldiers protect the country and its citizens. If they were not there, some country or group would have captured the country, imposed its bad laws and rules on you, killed people and raped women, harassed them, gave them pain, snatched their freedom and tortured them. Because of which the citizens would have prayed for death more than for life. The government of the country should provide bullet proof uniforms, bullet proof helmets, bullet proof glasses and technical gadgets to the soldiers who go to fight terrorists, Naxalites and enemy soldiers. (Note:-

Instead of killing terrorists, Naxalites and enemy soldiers, they should be shot in their legs or made unconscious with smoke bombs until they get injured, it can be good for human life. After that, many types of information can be obtained from them, and they can also be given prison sentence. So that in future they can improve and live a good life). The creation of humanoid robots and animaloid robots is a danger to mankind and other living beings. If their creation is not stopped, then serious consequences will come out. Like- increase in unemployment, increase in robbery, increase in violent incidents...etc. (Note:- If there is some technical fault in humanoid robots and animaloid robots, they can harm or even kill their owner. Because robots do not fear death, they are lifeless). Artificial Intelligence (A.I.) technology has been created by humans. Artificial Intelligence answers the user's questions by searching digitally available information. Digital information is available on websites and search engines like Google, Bing, Yahoo. A lot of information on these websites is correct and some information can be wrong. Therefore, Artificial Intelligence can provide correct information and sometimes wrong information as well. Trust them only after careful consideration and avoid taking wrong steps.

(Note: - It is good to use Artificial Intelligence. It makes it easy to get answers to questions, it is helpful in imagination. (It happens.

Make good use of Artificial Intelligence.) For long life:-

Adopt vegetarianism, do not drink milk of other animals, keep the body clean, drink clean water, eat clean and healthy food, breathe clean air, do not live in polluted environment, do not consume chemically refined food items daily, do not consume refined flour. Do not consume intoxicants, do not eat fast food and junk food daily, avoid using chemical pastes, do not use soap daily, sleep for about 8-9 hours, avoid being sad for a long time, do not stay in the sun for a long time during summer, improve your lifestyle. Believe in good work and do good work. The governments of the country should provide legal rights to sex workers. So that unmarried young men and women can enjoy physical pleasure without any legal fear. Also, hundreds of young men and women can get employment from sex work. (Note:- With sex workers getting legal rights, the incidents of rape will decrease in the country. Using condoms will reduce the chances of getting infected with AIDS (HIV virus)). A male organism having sexual relation with a male organism and a female organism having sexual relation with a female organism. Both these relations are unnatural. Because new organisms cannot be born from such relations. (Note:- They can become mentally and physically ill due to such relations). A person who does good deeds is considered a good person. A person who does neither bad nor good deeds will also be considered a good person. But a person who does good deeds will get more benefits. In space, due to solar flares, the garbage present around the earth is reduced. This is a process of the solar family. As the forests are decreasing:- Oxygen level is falling, the lifespan and physical stature of humans is decreasing, air pollution is increasing, the earth is getting hotter, ice is melting, places are getting submerged, volcanoes are becoming active. (Note:- Instead of cutting down forests, empty fields, barren lands and deserts can be used to build new cities. Also, by growing trees and plants there, that place can be made habitable). Because of some strange writers, today people consider historical events like Ramayana and Mahabharata to be imaginary. But Ramayana and Mahabharata are real events. (Note:- No one had magical powers in these historical events). The God you are going to find in temples, mosques, churches etc., there are statues of people who did good deeds. (Note:- Bhagwan, Allah, God. All these are the same. Only the synonyms are different).

Some ways to increase the battery capacity of your smartphone:- Uninstall or disable the apps that are not needed. Except system apps, turn off the background data of all other apps, turn on the dark theme. Your good and bad deeds are getting added to your account. You will get the benefit and loss of which on this earth itself. (Note: There is no place like heaven and hell. Heaven = happiness and hell = sadness). Imitate such things which are good for you. Avoid imitating such things which are bad for you. The death system created by God controls the population of living beings. Keep working hard and trying. In the end two things will happen, you will either succeed or perish. But there will be a satisfaction in the mind that I tried. Enjoy life, you will not get life again. Death is fun only when death comes on its own. Money is useful only as long as you are alive. Violence done to save your life or to save someone else's life is not bad. Most crimes happen late at night. Only God (nature) has the right to give death penalty. By failing in board exams, you do not fail in life. By doing bad deeds, good flowers do not bloom in your life. By not helping, the possibility of getting help decreases. The biggest dream should be to 'enjoy life'. Because later I don't have to regret that I couldn't enjoy life. Those who sit most of the time or work on smartphones, laptops or computers while sitting, should use other options to keep their body, heart and mind healthy. Such as:- running, walking, push-ups, jumping, cycling...etc. He can use any one of these options daily. For a limited time. Consuming refined flour (maida) daily can cause piles, appendix, heart attack. Because refined flour sticks to the intestines. Which can cause harmful bacteria. In the historical events that happened in ancient times, no one had magical powers nor did anyone have magical bows and arrows. There were many such emperors of historical events. Due to their good deeds, they are worshipped even today. Some of those historical events are:- Ramayana, Mahabharata, Shiva Gatha, Shri Krishna and Kansa Gatha...etc. Because of some writers, even today people consider these historical events to be mere fictional stories. Measures to reduce the effects of cancer, heart attack, brain tumor, diabetes, piles, obesity etc.:- Adopt vegetarian diet. Stop consuming refined flour. Do not consume fast food daily. Do not consume refined sugar and refined oil daily. Do not drink milk of other animals and do not eat food made from their milk. Do not use soap daily. Do not consume intoxicants. Drink clean water. Eat clean food. Do not use chemical pastes. Live in a clean environment. Stay fit. Keep your body clean. Use any one of these options every day, for a limited time. Such as:- running, walking, push-ups, jumping, cycling...etc.
